Selectmen's Meeting

MANSFIELD HEARING MARCH 3

In a letter to the Mattapoissett Board of Selectmen, William Mansfield, Jr. formally requested an appointment with Selectmen and Town Counsel Donald Fleming. He stated, "During the January 21 conference with Town Counsel, It was my understanding that in the event the Board of Selectmen did not agree with any portion of my proposed stipulation of judgement, I will meet with them personally to negotiate any controversial issue. However, I have not been allowed this opportunity." Mr.

Mansfield's letter stated that, in his opinion, the Selectmen's desire to restrict him to 3 moorings for members of his immediate family is "a violation of the Public Trust Doctrine".

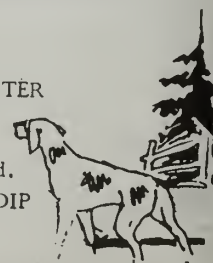

Selectmen will meet with Mr. Mansfield on this matter on Tuesday, March 3rd.
DECERTIFICATION THREAT

District Nurse Margaret Sylvester told Selectmen that Mattapoissett is under a threat of decertification which would mean that "all money from Medicaide and Medicare would cease". She said that this is because the town has a deficiency in the area of patients' rights. Town Counsel Donald Fleming said that the town is not in violation of any State statute. He said that he refused to include a right of patient appeal to the Attorney General because the town as a municipality is not a private corporation engaged in trade or commerce. He said that inclusion would open the Town of Mattapoissett to civil liability and it would have no way to obtain insurance to cover itself against lawsuits. Mr. Fleming said that it is his duty as Town Counsel and his obligation to protect the town and that he would again inform the State that the town has no violation because towns are not subject to the Consumer Protection Act because it is not engaged in trade but is rendering service as a municipality.

Mr. Fleming said the people of Mattapoisett have always been very conscientious about providing public service and voluntarily undertake programs. Mattapoisett should not be threatened. He said that the town will notify the State of its rights and that it is entitled to a judicial hearing if those rights are threatened.

COLEMAN GIFT APPROVED

Selectman John DeCosta said that the representative of the George Coleman Fund has approved the plans for the use of the $10,000 gift to furnish the children's level of the Mattapoisett Library.

SHELLFISH BUDGET

Selectmen accepted a $14,984.20 shellfish budget under the understanding that cuts may be necessary. Shellfish Constable Al Pauline said that the State may make loans available to commercial fishermen at long term, low interest rates. He said that shellfishermen, hurt by ice conditions this winter, should contact him. Mr. Pauline said that Shining Tides needs reseeding since the Fall storm destroyed 90% of the seed there and ice has killed a lot more.

Selectman DeCosta suggested that 100 bushels of quahog seed be planted beyond the 4 foot area off Ryecroft Point so that propagation will benefit commercial fishermen. The balance of 400 bushels will be planted for family permit areas. Selectmen recent incidents of excessive drinking leading to noise and fighting outside the club.

Selectmen William Hubbard and John DeCosta conferred with Gordon informally to discuss incidents of a "Drink or Drown" special on Thursday, February 12th. In an effort to hear the club's side of the story, Selectmen had asked that the manager Laura Perrin meet with them but she was unable to appear because of a family emergency.

Gordon said that "Drink or Drown" night was the only thing keeping the Roadhouse afloat. For $5., according to a newspaper advertisement produced by Mr. Hubbard, patrons buy a plastic cup which is refilled from the 8 p.m. opening until the 12:30 closing. The only extra charge is for $2. if the original cup is lost and a new one is required.

On Thursday, February 12, 1981, Officer Ken Pacheco, off duty, was employed by the club to keep order on "Drink or Drown" night. Pacheco stated that by 10:30 he observed about 20 male and female patrons staggering around with drinks in hand. He called the Mattapoisett Police cruiser to assist in ejecting an intoxicated patron. Lt. James Moran who responded stated that some people were staggering all over the place when he walked in. He said that the drunken man still had a drink in his hand when the police got him on his feet.

In another incident that same evening a girl was threatened by a motorcycle gang according to Officer Pacheco.

At 11:25, Pacheco was informed that a man armed with a handgun had been seen in the men's room. Lt. Moran, learning of this, kept the 4 to 12 shift on duty to double up the police personnel and the Fairhaven Police cruiser had come down for back-up. At 12:30, according to Lt. Moran, the 180 patrons left the establishment screaming and yelling. Peter Gordon said that the club management tried very hard to control the patrons. He said that he was out in the parking lot asking for quiet. He stated, "I just think that you are making it very hard for the club to stay open."

Selectman Hubbard noted that Laura Perrin is the only manager of record. He told Gordon that the Roadhouse cannot operate if she is not present. He requested that she appear at the March 17 hearing.

THANKSGIVING NOVENA TO ST. JUDE

Oh Holy St. Jude, Apostle and Martyr, great in virtue and rich in miracles, near kinsman of Jesus Christ, faithful intercessor of all who invoke your special patronage in time of need, to you I have recourse from the depth of my heart and humbly beg to whom God has given such great power to come to my assistance. Help me in my present and urgent petition. In return, I promise to make your name known, and cause you to be involved. Say three Our Fathers, three Hail Marys and Glories for 9 consecutive days. Publication must be promised. St. Jude pray for us all who invoke your aid. Amen. This Novena has never been known to fail. I have had my request granted. Publication promised. J.J.S.

Letter to the Editor

The news media have frequently decried the apathy of citizens regarding many elective offices. In Rochester, interest this year is again centered almost exclusively on candidates for Selectman. It is crucial that voters recognize that there are several other important positions which affect their lives, and no one should be conceded the privilege of running unopposed and without intensive scrutiny. The office of Assessor is a case in point.

When I ran for Assessor in 1975, the incumbents had been in office for several years. What I found after being elected can temperately be described as disturbing. Property records were not uniformly current and provided inadequate information. Assessors depended heavily on office personnel to accomplish tasks other than field work, and the latter was done in a perfunctory manner. Assessment practices were not based on any of the commonly accepted appraisal methods and inequities abounded. Comprehension of assessment and tax statutes was sketchy. No action had been taken to comply with the State Supreme Court's mandate to revalue property at fair market value.

Soon after I entered office steps were undertaken to comply with the Court's order and to correct the problems cited. However, support from other Board members was far from enthusiastic. Not until a new member was elected in 1979 was it possible to complete the revaluation process. Any further delay would certainly have resulted in the State stepping in, as occurred in several other communities, at substantial cost to taxpayers.

Revaluation and the establishment of sound operating procedures has been achieved. Nevertheless, it is essential that dedicated, qualified individuals be elected to ensure continued progress in the future. (For example, the law requires biennial updating of property values.) At the moment only one candidate, a Board member until 1975, is running for the upcoming vacancy. If he is elected, the Board will again have a majority of members from the "Do little" era. This poses one of the most serious issues facing this town in the forthcoming election! I trust the citizens of Rochester will not allow this to materialize by default.

FIELD WALK - FEBRUARY 28th

Local animals, in their daily and nightly comings and goings, leave tell-tale tracks and signs that can be read by the very observant. Indians had ways of interpreting these signs and could tell by tracks and markings which kind of animal was in the area. Tracking animals for the sake of observation can be fun and educational. The Children's Museum Saturday morning field walk on February 28th will stalk local animals by following their secret signs. We will also be on the lookout for very early signs of Spring, such as salamander eggs and the Museum's first flowers of the season, the Snowdrops. The walk starts at 10:00 a.m. and is FREE TO ALL.

MAPLE SUGARING TIME

March is Maple Sugaring time in New England. The smell of the sap boiling and the sight of buckets on the trees stir pleasant memories in all those who have been connected with the process of making maple syrup. The Children's Museum property boasts a fine grove of sturdy maples and each March we collect the sap, boil it down and make our syrup mainly for the enjoyment and education of our public. Those who are familiar with the work of making syrup come for the fun, and those who are curious and wish to learn the history of sugaring, the discovery of this natural New England sweetener, and want to see the process from tapping to tasting are more than welcome to join us. Every Saturday morning there will be a FREE Maple Sugaring Field Walk. There are still some openings for school classes and scout groups during the week. On the last Sunday in March, when all the syrup has been made, a pancake breakfast will be held as a culmination of the month's work. PLEASE join us for our 1981 Sugaring Season.

The Children's Museum is open Tuesday to Friday from 2:00 - 5:00, Saturday 10:00 to 5:00 and Sunday 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. A

One Man Show

MONOLOGIST TO PERFORM AT SMU

Actor/writer Spaulding Gray, whose oral autobiographical style is described by one reviewer as "not only our most ancient form of theater," but also "our most binding," brings his one-man show to Southeastern Massachusetts University Friday, February 27th.

Gray, whose childhood was spent in Barrington, R.I., will do two of his monologues, "Sex & Death to the Age 14", and "Booze, Cars, and College Girls". To anyone who grew up in this region in the 50s as Gray did, there should be a certain amount of self-recognition in the stories.

Described as both "wildly funny" and "brilliant reportage", Gray's stories detail his passage through childhood, puberty and adulthood. "It's very hard for me not to tell everyone everything," Gray once told a writer for the New York Times, and in the telling he manages to touch "himself and in doing so touches everyone else in the room," writes another reviewer.

"Gray achieves an immediate, disarming and entirely one-way intimacy with his audience," says Tish Dace, dean of SMU's College of Arts and Sciences. Dace, a theater critic who has reviewed Gray's
